MEETING OF EQUAL SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

Women Gather in Lynchburg Amid Much Enthusiasm.

MRS. LEWIS'S ADDRESS

Overflow Meeting at Farmville Courthouse — League Formed at That Place.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 24.—The Suffrage League of Virginia was opened with prayer by the Rev. W. A. Cooper, Methodist Memorial Church, in Hotel Carroll, Thursday morning, October 22nd, 1913.

Mrs. J. H. Lewis, President of the Equal Suffrage Club, of Lynchburg, made the welcoming address, after which Mrs. B. B. Valentine, State President, declared the third annual convention of the Equal Suffrage of Virginia open for business. In a short speech she stated that equal suffrage conditions change so rapidly it is difficult to keep up with them. Since the last convention the States of Florida, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, North and South Carolina, and Louisiana, had invited her to come and help them with their organization. In November North Carolina will organize the Suffrage League of North Carolina at Charlotte, and the Virginia State President has been invited to make the first public address in North Carolina on equal suffrage. M. C. A. Auditorium, when he would demonstrate that this menace could be reduced to a minimum by wise legislation. The convention accepted his invitation.

Dr. Ray K. Flannagan, Chief Health Officer of the State, made a spirited address, representing the Men's League for the advancement of Equal Suffrage in Virginia.

The roll of the 39 leagues was then called, the following answering:

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A dispatch from Bernosand, Sweden, says the steamer Westkusten, which left Vasa, in the Gulf of Bothnia Wednesday afternoon, in a gale, ran on a reef a few hours later and 44 persons were drowned.

Because her family physician refused to prescribe for the illness of her pet collie, Mrs. N. M. Watson, a wealthy society woman of Asheville, N. C., has a new family physician, and the remains of his dogship repose under a fresh mound of earth, buried with due honors in a $200 child's casket, purchased by his grieving mistress. Tuesday night the dog became ill and Mrs. Watson called on her family physician to treat it. He refused. "That's just the way," said Mrs. Watson, tearfully "You can never depend upon your friends when you need them." A veterinary was called, but was unable to do anything for the dog.

A blanket indictment charging Harry K. Thaw and four others with conspiracy in connection with his escape from the Matteawan State hospital for the criminal insane in August, was returned by the grand jury in New York yesterday afternoon. It will be used as a weapon by William Travers Jerome in his efforts to extradite Thaw from New Hampshire.

The Rt. Rev. Willim J. Kenny, Bishop of St. Augustine, Fla., died yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore. Death was due to a complication of diseases. He was sixty-nine years old.

The New York Senate has unanimously confirmed Governor Glynn's first nomination—that of James M. Lynch, of Syracuse, president of the International Typographical Union, as State Labor Commissioner.

Representative Carter Glass of Virginia, has received a telegram from former Governor Stokes, of New Jersey, now Republican candidate for governor, in which Mr. Stokes declines to meet Mr Glass in debate at Trenton, N. J., on the subject of the currency bill.

Mary, the 3-year-old daughter of Mrs. John Most, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was playing with matches yesterday, when her clothing caught fire. The mother heard the little one's cries and went to her assistance. The daughter, however, died in a short time from burns. The mother became frantic and rushing to her room, procured a revolver and standing in front of a mirror, shot herself through the head, dying almost instantly.

DIAZ TAKES REFUGE IN U. S. CONSULATE

Steamer Morro Castle Still Held at Very Cruz by Mexico.

DISREGARD PROTESTS.

Fleeing Legislators Said to be Aboard Steamer—Situation Believed to be Nearing Crisis.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 24. (Via Galveston.)—Gen. Felix Diaz, candidate for President of Mexico, and whom General Huerta wants out of the way, today was quartered in the United States consulate, under American protection.

Diaz was taken from the home of his brother-in-law by United States Consul Canada and John Lind, President Wilson's special envoy to Mexica. They were accompanied by one marine, and though Mexican soldiers guarded the house, the departure of Diaz with his American escorts was not interferred with.

The Ward liner, Morro Castle, an American steamship with Mrs. John Lind aboard, was still detained today by the Mexican port authorities. John Lind made vigorous protests to Gen. Gustavo Maass, the military commander, and to Foreign Minster Momena at Mexico, as well as to the State Department at Washington. He was informed by the Mexicans that the Morro Castle was held up because there were on board eight members of the Vera Cruz state legislature fleeing to Havana. Their removal and court-martial, it was said, was the reason for holding up the ship with the wife of the United States special envoy and 195 passengers aboard.

The escape of Diaz to the American consulate was dramatc. Since he arrived in Vera Cruz he had kept close within the house of his brother-in-law, a lawyer. Yesterday the place was surrounded with secret policemen, police in uniformed and soldiers. This gave rise to the report that Diaz had been placed under arrest. However, he was not taken into custody, but merely kept under surveillance. When Lind and Canada and their marine escort arrived, they were not molested,d for the soldiers had no orders covering such a contingency. General Diaz emerged with the Americans and all walked slowly along the streets to the German hotel, which they entered.

"My plans are rather unsettled," Gen. Felix Diaz said today, with a touch of irony. "It is plain that I am undesired in Mexico, at least, by some persons.

"I do not know when I shall leave this port, if at all. As most of my friends are here. I am considering a plan of going to Mexico City within forty-eight hours, so as to be there before the election on Sunday. However, all that is uncertain."

HOPE GIVEN UP FOR MINERS.

Rescuers Work on, But Expect to Find all Dead.

Dawson, N. M., Oct. 24.—Two hundred and forty-seven miners are believed to be dead today beneath tons of fallen earth, timber, coal, and rocks in the cuts and rooms of Stag Conon Mine No. 2, of the Stag Canon Fuel Company here.

Hundreds of miners, working in shifts of fifteen each, are slowly forcing their way through the rooms and entries, fighting against dangers of gas and fire which started in an adjoining mine, and which threatens to reach the space in which the entombed men were trapped.

Only twenty-three men have been taken from the mine alve.

DEATH OF MRS. FAIRBANKS.

Former Vice President's Wife Succumbs at Home at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24. — Mrs. Chas. W. Fairbanks, wife of the former Vice President, died at her home here early today, of pneumonia.

GOOD ROADS MEETING.

Large Attendance of Fairfax Residents Hear Addresses Last Night.

There was a large attendance at the meeting held at Accotink last night when the question of the bond issue for good roads for Mt. Vernon District, Fairfax county, was discussed. One hundred people were present and listened attentively to the strong facts presented by the speakers who favored the issuance of the bonds. J. Fred Birrell, of thi scity, democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, and L. E. Boykin, of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, addressed the meeting.

The latter dwelt on the great increase in the value of property, showing that in districts where there had been considerable expenditures for good roads, property values had almost doubled.

A letter has been received from St. Julian Wilson, commissioner of good roads for State, stating that if the Fairfax roads are built according to the present plans the district will receive approximately $10,000 every six years from state funds for the purpose of keeping them in condition.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

Young Man Turned Over to Louisa County Authorities.

Clarence L. Walker, twenty-four years old, living at 821 Oronoco street, employed at a planing mill in this city, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sergt. Wilkinson and a representative of the Burns Detective Agency, of Baltimore, agents for the American Bankers' Association, the arrest being at the instance of the latter.

It is alleged that Walker is wanted in Louisa county, Va., where he is charged with forging the name of Pete Zophi to a check for $37.86.

Walker emphatically denies the charge. He has been here since last March. Walker says he is a native of Albermarle county, Va.

The accused was later turned over to the Louisa county authorities.

NEGRO IN NIGHT CLOTHES.

Makes His Way to the Station House After Being Taken Home by Officers.

Some excitement was caused in the northwestern section of the city last night by a negro named John Stamps, who was found roaming through the streets in his night clothes. He was taken in charge by Officer Talbot and conducted to his home. He later reappeared in the streets and made his way to the station house, where he was locked up. He seemed to be demented, and the officers were unable to quiet him.

This morning Dr. Wilkins was summoned and had the negro returned to his home.

WILL LEAVE "THE FARMS."

President Finley and Family Will Spend the Winter in Washington.

President W. W. Finley, of the Southern, and family have left Warrenton not to return to live. Owing to the illness of Miss Finley and the climate of the country, it is understood "The Farms," their country place near Warrenton, will not be used further as their residence for several months as has been done for the past several years.

President Finley went to Warrenton about two years ago, purchasing "Loretta," the home of J. S. Gaines. The place was extensively remodeled and the name changed to "The Farms." Mr. Finley and his family have spent several months of each fall and spring there. They left Warrenton only a few weeks ago for Washington, where they will spend the winter.

CONFINED TO HIS HOME.

Alderman J. Marriott Hill, has been confined to his home on Prince street, for several days, as the result of an injury he received when a boy. At that time he was struck on the leg with a brick which was thrown by a negro. The injury healed up and has not given him any trouble until recently. He expects to be out on the streets within a few days. During his enforced stay at home he has been visited by many of his friends.

Best Oysters in the city served at Rammel's Cafe.

CANDIDATES HAVE LITTLE OPPOSITION

Seventy - Two Democrats Will Have Walkover For House of Delegates.

CONTESTS NOMINAL.

Only Two Active Contests Are In Progress for Seats in the Senate of Virginia.

Rchmond, Va., Oct. 24.—Seventy-two Democratic candidates for the next House of Delegates have no opposition in the general election to be held on November 4th. The State Democratic ticket has only nominal opposition from the Socialist Labor party. For the House of Delegates there are contests in twenty-four counties, four of which are entitled to two seats, making twenty-eight seats, which are more or less in doubt. In many of these cases the opposition is in name only.

While in one or two instances as indicated above the enabling act is made an issue in House campaigns, it has not generally been regarded as a matter of importance in the House as the attitude of that body is already known. The house passed the bill at the last session, and according to those who kept closely in touch wth the situation, will pass it again, though probably with a slightly reduced majority. The fight on this issue lies, as it did at the last session, in the Senate, by eight votes. There are no public announcements that Senators on either side have changed their views.

So far there are indicated but three changes in the senate. In the First District Senator D. C. Cummings has died since the last session. Candidates for the unexpired term are B. F. Buchanna, Democrat, and Lou Summers, Republican. The district is composed of Washington and Smyth counties, and the city of Bristol. The late Senator Cummings voted dry. Mr. Buchanan favors the enabling act, and Mr. Summers favors submisson of the issue to the people, but not in the form contemplated in the enabling act. In the Thirty-eighth district, Richmond City, Senator E. C. Folks has resigned. James E Cannon is the Democratic nominee without opposition. Mr. Folks opposed the enabling act and Mr. Cannon will do the same.

TWENTY KILLED IN STORMS.

All but Two Victims are Negroes. Damage is Estimated in the Millions.

New Orleans, Oct. 24.—Twenty persons at least were killed and scores injured in a series of storms that swept Louisiana yesterday, and did damage, which is estimated at several million dollars. The damage here was estimated at $500,000. Nine persons were killed and thirty-eight injured near Thibodeaux and Luling, where the storm wrecked many plantation buildings. Mrs. Alzie Borne and her two-month-old child were the only white persons killed in these localities.

Practically all the dead are negroes who were in shacks on plantations at the time. The flimsy frame structures collapsed, burying the inmates in the debris.

The storm destroyed wire communication, and it is feared that when further reports are received it will be found that the loss of life is greater.

Many roofs and cornices were blown from buildings here.

KNIFE FOR DELINQUENCY.

Four Persons of Criminal Tendencies Operated on by Order of Chicago Court.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Four patients were operated on yesterday by Dr. E. H. Pratt, of Evanston, in an effort to eliminate criminal tendencies and moral deficiencies.

The operations were performed at the instance of Judge George W. Bridgeman, of the Circuit Court of St. Josephs, Mich., who has announced that hereafter he will not sentence any one convicted in his court of moral crimes to pententaries or insane asylums until the knife has an opportunity to regenerate the mind affected.

For obvious reasons, the names of persons upon whom the operations are performed will be withheld.

Dr. Pratt, in discussing the subject recently with Judge Bridgeman, said that the operations would not destroy any organ or function of the mind or body, but merely would remove abnormal conditions affecting nerve centres.

Two persons who went under Dr. Pratts knife recently at St. Francis' Hospital, Evanston, are brother and sister, both under 20 years of age. If Dr. Pratt succeeds in overcoming their normal weakness, the charges pending against them in Judge Bridgeman's court will be dismissed. Both are said to be recovering rapidly from the operations.

Today's patients were two men and two children, against whom charges are pending in the Michigan court.

ACTIVITY OF THE CHURCH OF ROME

Resolution Introduced in Synod Declares it Blight And Menace.

ACTION DEFERRED.

Presbyterian General Assembly Asked to Advise People of Danger of The Growing Power.

Danville, Va., Oct. 24.—A resolution declaring that the Catholic church is a politico-religious organization and that its "pernicuous activity is a serious menace was introduced at the meeting yesterday of the Presbyterian synod of Virginia.

The paper is an overture to the general assembly of the church which meets next May, and was introduced by Rev. J. C. Painter, causing an animated discussion. It asks the assembly to adopt the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the general assembly view with serious concern the growth and pernicuous activty of the powerful politico-religious organization known as the Church of Rome, which is and always has been a menace or a blight to civil and religious liberty of every kind, wherever it has ever obtained a foothold; that it views with serious concern the dangerous apathy pervading all classes of Protestants in this country touching this menace."

It further recommends that the assembly appoint a committee to report to the next assembly "some practical method of advising our whole people concerning the dangers involved in the above facts and if in their judgment wise to invite the influence and co-operation of other Protestant bodies in this work."

Dr. Painter stated that he had no attack to make on members the Roman Catholic Church,, many of whom are good people, but that his opposition is against that organization known as the Roman Catholic Church, the head of which is the Pope of Rome, whom fifteen million people believe to be infallible.

He sad next that many of the large cities of the United States are under the control of the Romish Catholic Church and where entire control does not exist a large influence of Romanism prevails. He said also that many people who are in the position to know, bear witness to the fact that much of what is degrading in effect is the acompaniment of Roman Catholicism.

Speaking of the antagonism, which opposition to Romanism excites, Dr. Painter said: Since he had been in this fight he had been made to almost feel the fire of Smithfield on his whiskers.

He called attention to alleged attacks upon the ex-priest, Rev. Jeremiah Crowley, and said Romanists were back of these attacks and that the slogan of the Roman Catholic Church is, "America for Rome.

After speaking at length, calling attention to the alleged silence of the public press regarding the attacks of Romanism as claimed in the report and other times of the report, Dr. Painter closed his remarks by saying that it is time for the Presbyterian Church to act promptly in this matter.

This matter was postponed for further consideration today.

At the night session Rev. Dr. S. L. Morris, the general assembly secretary of home missions made a ringing appeal for the work under his direction.

ATTRACTIONS AT BAZAR

Interesting Features Last Night. Visitors Gaze Upon a Bower of Beauty

The attendance at the Hospital Bazar now being held at Armory Hall was a large again last night, and glee was manifested by all present.

Mr. Arthur Pierce, the cartoonist, enlivened the evening with an entertainment all his own.

Mrs. William P. Woolls, added additional interest to the evening by her singing, as did also Miss Margaret Emerson, who recited.

The Armory Hall was a bower of beauty attractive tables, where diners were being served satisfying repasts for moderate sums by winsome waitresses—lovely booths, presided over by young matrons and misses exhibiting wares both useful and ornamental—throngs of delghted visitors, interspersed by the persuasive and resistless wielders of the book and pencil sweetly asking, "Will you take a chance with me?"

As had been anticipated, the bazar, so far, has proven a success, and it is hoped the ladies who have labored so earnestly in the movement will be further encouraged by a general attendance of Alexandrians, and that the work of providing ways and means for the erection of a new hospital will receive a decided impetus.

CHRISTMAS APPROACHING.

If there is one time of the year that the housewife needs all the money she can obtain, it is during Christmas season, when the demands upon her are unusually heavy. A considerable sum of money can be saved by any woman in Alexandria between now and Christmas by shopping at the new store of F. B. Howard & Bro, 822 King street. A saving of from 10 to 15 cents on every dollar spent for food supplies between now and Christmas will amount to a considerable sum. Look at the prices offered in todays Gazettee and start saving tomorrow.

POLICE TO BE ON THE ALERT.

Mischievous Urchins Are Warned of the Consequences of Excesses on Halloween Night.

As is usual, the members of the police force will be on the lookout on Halloween night for youngsters who are prone to play cruel and often dangerous pranks on that occasion. The practice of removing shutters, using stale vegetables as missles, etc., will subject the offenders to arrest and fines if caught.

On some occasions thoughtless urchins have caused no little damage to property, especially front doors, by breaking panels with rocks.

While the night is observed in innocent amusements on the part of the majority, some especially of the younger generation, are prone to make others as miserable as possible.

It is hoped the above will prove a sufficient warning, and that all things will be done decently and in order this year.

STRANGLED BY HIS AUTO.

Flopping Car Rested on Physician's Neck.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 24.—His overturned automobile resting on his neck, Dr. S. A. Marlin, a Clinton physician, was slowly strangled to death under his wrecked car, early yesterday morning, and his companion Max Kreman, of Murdocksville, was fatally injured.

The men were returning to Clinton in Marlin's machine and were speeding down the hill when the automobile skidded, turned around twice and then crashed into a telegraph pole and overturned.

Both men were pinioned under the automobile, but Kreman managed to extricate himself, but was unable to raise the heavy car.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Resolution Introduced to Canonize George Washington.

New York, Oct. 24.—The House of Deputies of the Protestant Episcopal Church, established a rule that hereafter the presiding bishop of the church shall be elected.

Frederick C. Morehouse, a lay delegate from Milwaukee, introduced a resolution intended to authorize a commission to revise the list of saints in the Epscopal Church, so as to include among others, American personages who have been dead longer than a century. Mr. Morehouse made reference to Bishop Seabury, the first bishop of the church of America, and to a possible canonizing of George Washington. The resolution was referred to the joint commission on the revision of the prayer book.

FLEET MAY GO TO MEXICO.

Officers Telegraph Their Wives Not to go to Europe.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—That the entire Atlantic fleet expects to be sent to Mexico became evident yesterday, when it became known that a number of naval officers had sent telegrams to their wives telling them not to go to Europe to meet the ships which are scheduled to sail Saturday, ostensibly for the Mediterranean. It is reported that the ships have orders to proceed to sea as scheduled on Saturday, but are to proceed at only 8 knots until they get orders from Washington.

It is believed the fleet, while bound to the Mediterranean, could be sent to Mexico without loss of time if its presence is deemed necessary in case of trouble, following the election Sunday. With the ships making only 8 knots they will be in touch with the Arlington wireless station until next Thursday.

The wives of a number of officers had decided to go to Europe to meet their husbands on the arrival of the fleet on the other side. With their destination uncertain, many officers notified their wives not to take passage from New York for any foreign port.

SAYS SHE WAS KIDNAPPED.

Philadelphia Girl is Held by Norfolk Police.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—Declaring that she was kidnapped in Philadelphia last Monday, Nellie Reever, a pretty 14-year-old girl, was found in this city yesterday by the police and is now being held, pending the arrival of her relatives from the Quaker City.

The local police received a telegram today from Robert E. Cameron, captain of detectives in Philadelphia, asking that the girl be taken into custody. It appears that she had written her parents, telling them of her whereabouts.

Detective Stevenson found the girl in a house in Ghent. She says she was standing in front of her home last Monday when two men grabbed her. She says she tried to run into the house, but one of them placed a revolver to her head and the other threatened to stab her with a stiletto. She said they compelled her to go to the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, where they took a train for Norfolk. On the train, she says, the men told her they intended taking her to Italy. When she arrived in Norfolk, she says, she jumped into a taxicab and was driven to the Masonic Temple. She says she appealed for help there because her father is a Mason. Chief of Police Kizer says he believes the girl ran away from home.

Seamer in Distress.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—The tank steamer Harry Wadsworth, from New York to Galveston, Tex., in ballast, arrived here today in distress after having encountered the severe storm of October 20 off the coast. The Wadsworth first broke her steering gear and limped in with her pumps badly out of order. She will repair here, and proceed.

TRIBUTE TO HIS MOTHER.

No more beautiful thing has ever been written, printed or spoken in the English language than the tribute of Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, to the memory of his mother. It is as follows:

"I think back through the years, the lean and the fat, the good and the bad ones, to my earliest recollection. I see a woman with an eye that flashes swift as an archangel's wing, and a mouth that breaks with laughter and hardens at sight of wrong, singing lullabies; a woman, who, with hand grasping the Unseen Hand, walks the briar-bordered paths of life unashamed, unafraid, unharmed. She is clad in garments of beauty for me and age does not soil them nor years made them cheap and tawdry. Her tongue is without guile, having never been the messenger of a lie. It is 17 years since her soul went home to God and her fingers became for me the fingers of an angel, but I have not forgotten all she said. She told me there was a Santa Claus, and I believed her. He brings me no longer drums and fifes. But he still brings to me the vision of my mother and the music of that angelic chorus which sang at creation's dawn and at the hour of man's redemption."

WASHINGTON MAY BE CANONIZED.

Pictures of George Washington will, in future, if the movement started in the Episcopal convention, succeeds, have his head encircled with the halo of a saint.

A writer several years ago said he thought the father of the country had sit long enough in front of the capitol at Washington, exposed to the elements without a shirt. He was later removed to the Smithsonian Institute. The halo of the saint will not add materially to his make-up.

LIGHTS SHOULD BE PLACED ON VEHICLES.
(Communicated.)

To the Editor of the Gazette:

Since Alexandria has started to enforce her traffic laws and to make new ones, which are most necessary for our newly paved streets and modern locomotion,an observer of an accident yesterday evening would like to call attention to a traffic law of all large cities, which is totally over-looked or unenforced in our city. An automobile with two small lamps burning in front and one in rear, which is according to the usual traffic laws (no search lights in city limits), collided with a wagon carrying no lights and going in the same direction. On most of our streets only every other corner has an electric light. At the corner without light, it is sometimes very difficult to judge the distance. Have we no traffic law compelling all vehicles whether in motion or standing on the street after sundown to carry lights?

If we have why not enforce it. If we have not, it isn't worthy of consideration.

AN OBSERVER.

AN APPEAL TO THE MEN OF ALEXANDRIA.
(Communicated.)

To the Editor of the Gazette:

The undersigned has been a visitor at the Hospital Fair every night since the opening. It is a splendid spectacle and a far more splendid charity. Although the fair has so far been a great success, the writer has been struck with the scarcity of men in attendance, and he wondered why, in spite of its attractions and its charity, this is so. We have noted especially the absence of Masons and Elks, two of the largest fraternity bodies in the city and when we recall that these two bodies have in recent years given fairs we are made to wonder all the more. Can it be that your pride and gratitude are so slow to be stirred? Do you not remember, that the ladies, for the large part, now in charge of the hospital fair are the very same ladies who labored to make your fairs a success? You were interested in building great memorials to your own organizations; these ladies are interested in building a memorial to humanity. These ladies do not ask you to help them as they helped you. Their appeal is bigger and broader ! Are you so selfish or forgetful that you are unwilling now to do your part? Come down tonight and tomorrow night; there is much you can do and you should show your appreciation of past favors by doing it.

Nor have the business men, the private organizations who are wont to give entertainments and sell tickets to the public, the young men who claim eminence as our society folks done their share. It is not too late late ,and Alexandria expects every man to do his duty.

KILLED IN STRIKE RIOT.

Forces For and Against Walkout Battle in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 24.—In a battle between striking garment workers and operatives who declined to join their ranks in the center of the city last night, Abe Kaplan, 19 years, old was shot and killed and several others were injured. When the workers left their places of employment last night it was said they were attacked by a crowd of more than 100 strikers.

Many shots were fired, bricks hurled and women members of the mob used hat pins and pulled hair. A squad of police dispersed the mob and arrested two alleged strikers, one of whom is said to have fired the shot that killed Kaplan.

The garment workers have been on strike for more than two months, demanding increased wages and recognition of their union. It is claimed that about 4,000 are out.

OUTBREAKS IN LISBON.

Students Stone Government Buildings—Fifteen Arrested.

Lisbon, Oct. 24.—There was a second outbreak iln the Portuguese monarchist uprising yesterday when a group of students stoned the government buildings. Their leaders and fifteen others were arrested.

According to the authorities, one of the prisoners confessed that President Arraga and the premier were to have been assassinated as part of the plot against the government.

The city is under martial law. Members of the cabinet do not venture abroad unless surrounded by soldiers. A monarchist newspaper, which has bene circulated freley has been confiscated., Secret police have seized scores of bombs.

Among the prisoners is Capt. Cutinho, cousin of the late King Pedro, of Portugal.

Bedajose, Spain, Oct. 24.—Hundreds of Portuguese refugees have crossed the border fearing an outbreak of civil war in Portugal.

They contradicted the reassuring utterances of the Government, saying that the monarchist revolt was well planned and it had not been quelled. Several towns in Eastern Portugal, they said, are in the hands of royalists.

Newfield, N. J., Oct. 23.—Dr. H B. Hahn, a retired physician, who has resided with his wife, near here, since moving from Baltimore,, some months ago, was struck by a W. J. & S. train here early yesterday morning and died shortly afterward. Dr. Hahn reached Philadelphia from Newfield, late Tuesday and missed the last train for Vineland.His body was founder under freight train about 1 o'clock. How the Hoosier Cabinet Saved Miles of Steps

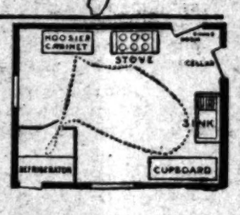
THIS kitchen before being remodeled caused miles of steps every day. It is 16 feet long and 12 feet wide. The table was taken out, the pantry changed slightly and a Hoosier Cabinet added. Now the Hoosier is the center of everything with a splendid light. The old pantry is the refrigerator room with outside icing.

To prepare a meal this housekeeper takes food from the ice-chest to the cabinet, where she works without a step; then to the stove and dining room. Returning, soiled dishes go to the sink then to their shelves. She has her work done in hours less time than before she had her Hoosier.



Last Call for the HOOSIER CLUB!

Every Cabinet will be taken by Tomorrow Night

You are letting a remarkable opportunity to save money and health slip through your fingers by not investigating the club plan tomorrow, for this year not another Hoosier Club can be organized.

So many women have grasped this opportunity to secure a Hoosier on the wonderful generous conditions of the club plan that it isn't likely there will be a single cabinet left of our allottment by 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

You save hours of time, miles of steps and long hour of weary standing.

ONLY COMPLETE CABINET.

Every device that is practical for work saving in a kitchen has been tested by the Hoosier Company. The Hoosier Cabinet is the scientific result of all these experiments, It the most important and complete labor-saving machine so far invented for women, It is the only kitchen Cabinet that is complete.

Puts The Hoosier in Your Home.

Come early tomorrow withou fail. Joint the Hoosier club and we will deliver your cabinet and set it up in your kitchen ready to use immediately. Y merely deposit the small $1.00 membership fee, and your cabinet comes without waiting.

If we had many times these cabinets to offer the last day, we know every one would be taken.

THE FIRST ARTILLERY DUEL AT GETTYSBURG.

(Written for the Gazette.)

Few, few shall part where many meet
And every sod beneath their feet
Shall be a solider sepulchre.'

The second of July ended at last. Since noon Longstreet had hurled his brigades against the enemy's left. The third corps was not engaged this day, holding as it did, the center of the battle line. So we listened to the roar of Longstreet's guns and the steady crash of hs musketry which seemed never to cease. The sun went down, and for that day at lest, the awful carnage was over.

Longstreet's sledge-hammer blows had been terrific. Had any material advantage been gained? The trained soldier can lend his ear to the sound of battle and tell how it goes. As the darkness came on a feeling of depression prevailed. Had the gods of battle begun to frown; was the great army of Northern Virginia to be balked; was victory not to perch upon its banners. Had we missed our opportunity in failing to follow the brilliant victory of the day before? What was the morrow to bring forth? We laid down to rest with a feeling of anxiety and uncertainty. The 3rd day of July broke clear so far as a cloudless sky was concerned, but the sun rose red and obscure by the smoke of the two days battle, which still clung to the field. A lurid light shown over all. We got breakfast, fed and watered the horses and received orders to hitch up and wait. About ten o'clock we began to move, and the whole artillery of the army was soon in motion, battery after battery, and batallion after batallion, long columns of steel and brass moved up and along Seminary Ridge. As each battery reached the position assigned it the guns were unlimbered and trained on Cemetery Hill, where the enemy had already concentrated his artillery. Our guns numbered about 120. Those of the enemy about 80. Such an array had never been seen on the continent. It was now twelve o'clock, the weather was hot, sultry and close.

"The bloody sun at noon
Right up above the mast did stand
No bigger than the moon.'

The water buckets for keeping the guns cool were filled and placed near the muzzles. The cannoniers took their posts at the guns and the drivers stood by their horses' heads. Suddenly off upon the right two signal guns were fired in rapid succession and the 'lid was promptly taken off Hell.' Every gun opened,firing by batteries, by batallions, twenty-fifty guns at one time, the enemy responding in like manner. The range was soon found and the air was alive with the flying missiles. Whistling round shot, screaming, bursting shells, schrapnel bullets and fragments of iron sawing the air. The earth shook and trembled as in the throes of an earthquake. With their packets off and sleeves rolled up the cannoniers toiled at the guns keeping them cool by dipping the sponge heads in the water buckets. As fast as one man fell another took his place. Guns were dismounted, limbers and cassons blown and horses ripped open and disembowled and for two hours this fearful fire never ceased a moment. The enemies batteries were by now completely sileneed, and ours ceased firing, the smoke blowing away the curtain was about to lift upon the last act in this long and bloody drama. Pickett's division 5,000 of the flower of Virginia soldiers debauched from a wood on the right and sweeping by with their red cross battle-flag fluttering along the line of glistening bayonets, advanced to the final assault. As they were in our line of fire we could help them no more. The enemy kept some of the batteries in reserve and bringing them now into action opened upon Pickett's division, assisting their infantry to repel the charge. It was quickly over, this profitless sacrifice, attacking a position that could have been occupied on the first day's battle, with half a brigade, Oh, the pity of it all! The mourning and grief down in the homes of Old Virginia where sit mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts awaiting news of the great battle, while their loved ones lie stiff and stark in death upon that stricken field; or wounded and parched with fever and thirst almost worse than death.

The cannoniers resumed their posts at the guns expecting a countercharge from the lines of the enemy and the sun went down upon the third and last day of this campaign On the afternoon of the next day in a driving,chilly,rain we limbered up the guns and drew off the heights of Gettysburg. The infantry deployed from line into column, swung their rifles to the right shoulder, formed their rear guard and followed by the artillery and trains took up the line of march to the South. Those who were on the march could hardly forget it. There was no hurry, no demoralization, but there was to be no halting for any purpose. The wounded, those who were able to move, were first loaded into the ambulance and when they were filled put into the empty ammunition waggons which being without springs, terrible suffering was caused from the jolting over the rough rock roads and all during the long night their cries were piteous to hear, some of them begging in their agony to be shot and put an end to their misery. We reached the river, which was so swollen by the heavy rains that we could not cross. The army formed line of battle again, but the enemy who had followed us slowly, and cautiously, declined battle, and after a couple of days we re-crossed into Virginia again. The army of Northern Virginia had confidently expected to gain a great victory in Pennsylvania but God rules the world and let us bow to His decree. We would like to say this much, however, in conclusion, that many writers of the civil war, particularly Northern ones are very fond of the statements that the battle of Gettysburg was the high-water mark of the rebellion as they are pleased to call the civil war. This is sheer nonsense. During the balance of the year the federal army declined battle with the army of Northern Vrginia in the following spring General Grant was brought in from the west and placed in command, and during the campaign in the wilderness which culminated in the battle of Coal Harbor fought on the 4th of June, eleven months after the battle of Gettysburg, Grant lost sixty thousand men, which was more than Lee had altogether in his army The New York Herald clamored for peace, but at this time bad news came from the West of reverses to the Confederate arms, and it grew rapidly gloomy for the Southern cause.

Many years have passed since these stirring days, on the plains of Virginia, the peaceful plowman turns the sod once soaked with the blood of heroes. On the hills, in the valleys, and by the rivers her soldiers who fought so gallantly for the State they loved so well slumber in the last sleep.

Softly sigh the wind of heaven o'er their grave,
While the billow mournful rolls—
And the mermaids song condoles,
Singing Glory to the souls of the brave."

HAIR DOESN'T DIE— IT HAS TO BE KILLED.

Hair often continues to live and grow long after the death of the body. But it is often killed through neglect or misuse. Almost always the woman or man whose hair is falling out, or is stringy, lifeless and dull looking, is entirely to blame because of not giving it the proper care. It is easy to take care of the hair—easy to make it more beautiful. Use Harmony Hair Beautifier, to make it glossy, soft and silky, and Harmony Shampoo to keep hair and scalp thoroughly clean.

Harmony Hair Beautifier, delightfully perfumed with true rose, is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean use Harmony Shampoo. The pure liquid shampoo is most convenient to use, giving an instantaneous rich, foaming lather, that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing.It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair, and leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles. Harmony Hair Beautifier $1.00. Harmony Shampoo 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—he Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations.
